Dear Huw,

Thank you for your letter of 27 November 2023.

In respect of the Prohibition on the Incineration, or the Deposit in Landfill, of Specified Waste (Wales) Regulations 2023, I note your comment that the Government response to the LJCC report states that “bennir” will now be used in paragraph 11(1) of the Schedule, whereas “ganfyddir”/“ganfod” has been used in the equivalent provision in the Prohibition on Disposal of Food Waste to Sewer (Civil Sanctions) (Wales) Order 2023 and the Waste Separation Requirements (Wales) Regulations 2023. On further consideration all three SIs will be amended to use “bennir” in this provision for consistency.

In respect of paragraphs 25(3)(c) and 26(c) of the Schedules to the three SIs, we accept your comments that the response provided to the LJCC in respect of the Prohibition on the Incineration, or the Deposit in Landfill, of Specified Waste (Wales) Regulations 2023 did not reflect the drafting of the SI. On further consideration, it has been decided that paragraphs 25(3)(c) and 26(c) of the Schedule to the Prohibition on the Incineration, or the Deposit in Landfill, of Specified Waste (Wales) Regulations 2023 will be amended for consistency with the two other SIs, so that “bennu”/“bennu’r” will be used in those provisions in place of “ganfod”/“nodi’r”.

The amendments referred to above are detailed below:-

Prohibition on the Incineration, or the Deposit in Landfill, of Specified Waste (Wales) Regulations 2023	In paragraph 11(1) of the Schedule “ganfyddir” will be replaced with “bennir”	In paragraph 25(3)(c) of the Schedule “ganfod” will be replaced with “bennu”	In paragraph 26(c) of the Schedule “nodi’r” will be replaced with “bennu’r”
