(d) how acting in collaboration with any other person (or how different parts of the body acting together) could assist the body to meet its objectives, or assist another body to meet its objectives;

(e) how deploying resources to prevent problems occurring or getting worse may contribute to meeting the body’s objectives, or another body’s objectives.

(3) A statement published under section 4(2) must also include provision setting out—

27 Invitations to participate
(1) A public services board for a local authority area must invite the following persons to participate in the activity of the board—

(2) Each board may invite any other person who exercises functions of a public nature to participate in the activity of the board, even if that person also exercises other functions.

(5) A person who accepts an invitation to participate in the activity of a public services board—

(a) is referred to in this Part as an “invited participant”; but

(b) does not become a member of the board by virtue of accepting the invitation.

(6) The reference in subsection (4)(c) to providing assistance does not include providing financial assistance.

28 Invitations to participate: issue, response and duration of participation

(1) An invitation under section 27(1) must be issued as soon as is reasonably practicable following—

(a) the first meeting of a public services board (see paragraph 2(1) of Schedule 3), and

(b) each meeting held under paragraph 3(1) of that Schedule.

Local well-being plans

36 Local well-being plans

(1) A public services board must prepare and publish a plan (a “local well-being plan”) setting out its local objectives and the steps it proposes to take to meet them.

(2) The plan may include objectives—
(a) that are also well-being objectives published under Part 2 by a member of the board;
(b) that are to be met by the taking of steps—
   (i) by one or more members of the board, invited participants or other partners acting individually, or
   (ii) any combination of members, invited participants or other partners acting jointly.

(3) But a plan may include an objective which is to be met by steps which are to be taken by an invited participant or other partner (whether individually or jointly in any combination of members, invited participants or other partners) only if the board has obtained the agreement of that invited participant or other partner, as the case may be.

(4) In setting its well-being objectives a board must take into account the Commissioner’s report under section 20.

(5) A local well-being plan must include a statement—
   (a) explaining why the board considers that meeting the local objectives will contribute within the area to achieving the well-being goals;
   (b) explaining how the objectives and any proposed steps have been set with regard to any matters mentioned in the most recent assessment of well-being published under section 34;
   (c) specifying the periods of time within which the board expects to meet the objectives;
   (d) explaining how any proposed steps are to be taken in accordance with the sustainable development principle;
   (e) if the plan includes objectives referred to in subsection (2)(b), specifying the proposed steps to be taken to meet those objectives and, in the case of steps to be taken by a combination of members of the board, invited participants or other partners, the persons making up the combination;

   (g) providing such other information as the board considers appropriate.

(6) Each board must publish its first local well-being plan no later than one year after the date on which the next ordinary election under section 26 of the Local Government Act 1972 (c. 70) following the commencement of this section is held.

(7) Subsequently, each board must publish a local well-being plan no later than one year after the date on which each subsequent ordinary election under that section is held.

(8) Each board must send a copy of its plan to—
   (a) the Welsh Ministers;
   (b) the Commissioner;
   (c) the Auditor General for Wales;
(d) the local authority’s overview and scrutiny committee.

37 Local well-being plans: sustainable development principle

Applying the sustainable development principle to setting objectives for inclusion in the local well-being plan and taking steps to meet them requires a public services board to take into account—

(a) the importance of balancing short-term needs with the need to safeguard the ability to meet long-term needs, especially where things done to meet short-term needs may have detrimental long-term effect;

(b) the need to take an integrated approach, by considering—

(i) how an objective may impact upon each of the well-being goals and the three aspects of well-being contained in the common aim;

(ii) how each board’s objectives impact upon each other or upon the well-being objectives published under Part 2 by the members of the board individually, in particular where steps taken by the board may contribute to meeting one objective but may be detrimental to meeting another;

(iii) the importance of involving those with an interest in the objectives, by seeking their views and taking them into account;

(c) how acting in collaboration with its invited participants, other partners, other public service boards or other persons could assist in meeting the board’s objectives or the well-being objectives of a member of the board or the well-being objectives of another public service board;

(d) how deploying resources to prevent problems occurring or getting worse may contribute to meeting the board’s objectives or the well-being objectives of a member of the board or the well-being objectives of another public service board.

38 Local well-being plans: role of community councils

(1) A community council must take all reasonable steps in its area towards meeting the local objectives included in the local well-being plan that has effect in its area.

(2) But a community council is subject to the duty under subsection (1) only if, for each of the preceding three financial years prior to the local well-being plan for its area being published, either its gross income or its gross expenditure was at least £200,000.

(3) The Welsh Ministers may, by regulations, amend the criteria specified in subsection (2) for determining whether a community council is subject to the duty under subsection (1); and the regulations may reflect provision made about community councils in regulations under section 39 of the Public Audit (Wales) Act 2004 (c.23).

(4) Before making regulations under subsection (3), the Welsh Ministers must consult—

(a) the Commissioner;

(b) the community councils that would become subject to the duty under subsection (1) if the regulations were made;

(c) such other persons as the Welsh Ministers consider appropriate.
(5) A community council must publish, in respect of each financial year in which it was subject to the duty under subsection (1), a report of the progress it has made in its area in meeting the local objectives included in the local well-being plan that has effect in its area.

(6) A report under subsection (5) must be published as soon as reasonably practicable following the end of the financial year to which the report relates.

(7) The Welsh Ministers must issue guidance to community councils that are subject to the duty under subsection (1) about the exercise of the duty.

(8) In carrying out the duty under subsection (1), a community council must take such guidance into account.

39 Preparation of local well-being plans: information about activities of others

(1) In preparing its local well-being plan (and before consulting under section 41), a public services board may require any person mentioned in subsection (2) to provide the board with information about any action it takes that may contribute within the board’s area to achieving the well-being goals.

(2) The persons are—
   (a) the persons invited to participate in the activities of the board, except the Welsh Ministers (see section 27);
   (b) the board’s other partners (see section 29).

(3) But a person mentioned in subsection (2) is not required to provide information to a public services board—
   (a) if the person considers that doing so would—
       (i) be incompatible with the person’s duties, or
       (ii) otherwise have an adverse effect on the exercise of the person’s functions, or
   (b) if the person is prohibited from providing it by virtue of an enactment or any other rule of law.

(4) Where a person mentioned in subsection (2) decides, in reliance on subsection (3)(a), that it is not required to provide information to a public services board, it must provide the board with written reasons for its decision.

40 Preparation of local well-being plans: Commissioner’s advice

(1) In preparing its local well-being plan (and before consulting under section 41), a public services board must seek the advice of the Commissioner on how to take steps to meet the objectives to be included in the plan in accordance with the sustainable development principle.

(2) The Commissioner must give the advice—
   (a) in writing, and
   (b) no later than 14 weeks after it is sought.

(3) Each board must publish the Commissioner’s advice at the same time as it publishes the local well-being plan.

(g) representatives of persons resident in its area;

(h) representatives of persons carrying on business in its area;

(i) trade unions representing workers in its area;

(j) any other persons who, in the opinion of the board, are interested in the improvement of the area’s economic, social and environmental well-being.

(2) As part of the consultation under subsection (1), each board must provide each consultee with a draft local well-being plan.

(3) The consultation under subsection (1) must not end until at least 12 weeks have passed since the day on which it began.

(4) Before publishing its local well-being plan, a public services board must hold a meeting at which each member confirms its approval of the plan for publication.

(5) If the local authority is operating executive arrangements under Part 2 of the Local Government Act 2000 (c.22), the function of approving the local well-being plan for publication may not be exercised by an executive of the authority under those arrangements; nor does section 101 of the Local Government Act 1972 (c. 70) (discharge of functions by committees etc.) apply to that function.

(6) In the case of each Local Health Board, each Welsh fire and rescue authority and the Natural Resources Body for Wales, the function of approving the local well-being plan for publication may only be exercised at a meeting of the body in question.

Review of local well-being plans

(1) A public services board may—

(a) review and revise its local objectives;

(b) review and amend its local well-being plan (and must amend its plan if it has revised its local objectives).

(2) Each board—

(a) must review its local objectives or local well-being plan if directed to do so by the Welsh Ministers, and
(b) may revise its objectives or amend its plan in consequence of such a review.

(3) When giving a direction under subsection (2)(a) the Welsh Ministers must publish a statement containing their reasons for giving it.

(4) Before making an amendment to its plan, each board must consult—

(a) the Commissioner;

(5) An amended plan must be published as soon as reasonably practicable.

(6) A board must send a copy of its amended plan to—

(a) the Welsh Ministers;

(b) the Commissioner;

(c) the Auditor General for Wales;

(d) the local authority’s overview and scrutiny committee.

43 Annual progress reports

(1) A public services board must prepare and publish a report—

(a) no later than 14 months after the publication of its local well-being plan, and

(b) subsequently no later than one year after the publication of each previous report under this section.

(2) But no report is required under subsection (1)(b) if a local well-being plan is to be published by virtue of section 36(7) (publication of new local well-being plan following election) no later than one year after the publication of the previous report under this section.

(3) A report under this section must specify the steps taken since the publication of the board’s most recent local well-being plan to meet the objectives set out in the plan.

(4) A report under this section may contain such other information as the board considers appropriate.

(5) A board must send a copy of each report published under this section to—
