5 Having been passed by the National Assembly for Wales and having received the assent of Her Majesty, it is enacted as follows:

- 15 (3) Part 3 makes provision about the repayment of holding deposits (as defined in Schedule 1).
- (4) Part 4 makes provision about enforcement, including provision about powers to require information, and fixed penalties.
- (5) Part 5 makes provision for the recovery of payments prohibited by this Act, and of holding deposits withheld contrary to this Act.
- 20 (6) Part 6 gives the Welsh Ministers a power to make provision by regulations in relation to publicising certain fees charged by letting agents.
- (7) Part 7 makes general provision, including provision about the procedural requirements for making regulations, and about Crown application.

PART 2

25 PROHIBITION OF CERTAIN PAYMENTS ETC.

2 Prohibitions applying to landlords

- (1) It is an offence for a landlord to require a prohibited payment to be made to the landlord, or any other person, as a condition of the grant, renewal or continuance of a standard occupation contract.

- (2) It is an offence for a landlord to require a person to enter into a contract for services with the landlord, or any other person, as a condition of the grant, renewal or continuance of a standard occupation contract.
- (3) But subsection (2) does not apply if the contract for services provides for services to be provided by a person upon whom the standard occupation contract confers, or would confer, the right to occupy a dwelling (whether or not the contract for services also provides for any other person to provide services).
- (4) It is an offence for a landlord to require the grant of a loan to the landlord, or any other person, as a condition of the grant, renewal or continuance of a standard occupation contract.
- (5) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine.
- (6) The court by which a person (“the offender”) is convicted of an offence under subsection (1) may order the offender to pay the amount of the payment concerned or (in a case where part of the payment has been repaid) the outstanding amount of the payment to the person by whom it was paid.

3 Prohibitions applying to letting agents

- (1) It is an offence for a letting agent to require a prohibited payment to be made to the letting agent, or any other person, as a condition of arranging the grant, renewal or continuance of a standard occupation contract.
- (2) It is an offence for a letting agent to require a person to enter into a contract for services with the letting agent, or any other person, as a condition of arranging the grant, renewal or continuance of a standard occupation contract.
- (3) It is an offence for a letting agent to require the grant of a loan to the letting agent, or any other person, as a condition of arranging the grant, renewal or continuance of a standard occupation contract.
- (4) A person guilty of an offence under this section is liable on summary conviction to a fine.
- (5) The court by which a person (“the offender”) is convicted of an offence under subsection (1) may order the offender to pay the amount of the payment concerned or (in a case where part of the payment has been repaid) the outstanding amount of the payment to the person by whom it was paid.

4 Prohibited and permitted payments

- (1) Any payment of money is a prohibited payment unless –
- (a) it is payable by a landlord to a letting agent in respect of lettings work or property management work carried out by the agent on behalf of the landlord, or
 - (b) it is a permitted payment by virtue of Schedule 1.
- (2) That Schedule makes provision about –
- (a) rent;
 - (b) security deposits;

- (c) holding deposits;

- 5 (g) payments in respect of a television licence;
- (h) payments in respect of communication services.

5 Non-binding contract terms

- 10 (1) A term of a standard occupation contract is not binding on a contract-holder to the extent that (but for this section) it would require a prohibited payment to be made, or a contract for services to be entered into, or a loan to be made, as described in section 2 or 3.
- (2) But the contract continues, so far as practicable, to have effect in every other respect.

6 Application of sections 2 to 5 to pre-existing requirements and contracts

Sections 2 to 5 do not apply in respect of—

- 15 (a) a requirement imposed before the coming into force of this Part;
- (b) a requirement forming part of a standard occupation contract entered into before the coming into force of this Part.

7 Power to amend definition of “permitted payment”

- 20 (1) Regulations may amend this Act for the purposes of adding, modifying or removing a reference in Schedule 1 to a category of payment.
- (2) But the power in subsection (1) does not extend to removing the payment of rent from the categories of payment that are permitted payments under this Act.

8 Meaning of “letting agent”, “lettings work” and “property management work”

For the purposes of this Part and Parts 3 to 5—

25 “letting agent” (“asiant gosod eiddo”) means a person who carries out lettings work or property management work (whether or not the person carries out other work);

“lettings work” (“gwaith gosod”) and “property management work” (“gwaith rheoli eiddo”) have the same meaning as in Part 1 of the Housing (Wales) Act 2014 (see sections 10 and 12 of that Part).

PART 3

TREATMENT OF HOLDING DEPOSITS

9 Treatment of holding deposits

- 5 (1) A payment that is a permitted payment by virtue of paragraph 3 of Schedule 1 (which permits the payment of holding deposits) is to be treated as having been made on the terms set out in Schedule 2.
- (2) Subsection (1) does not apply in relation to a payment made before the coming into force of Schedule 2.

SCHEDULE 1
(as introduced by section 4)

PERMITTED PAYMENTS

Rent

- 5 1 (1) A payment of rent under a standard occupation contract is a permitted payment.
- (2) But, subject as follows, if the amount of rent payable in respect of a relevant period (“P1”) is more than the amount of rent payable in respect of another relevant period (“P2”), the additional amount payable in respect of P1 is a prohibited payment.
- 10 (3) Where there is more than one relevant period other than P1, P2 is whichever one of those other relevant periods is the period in respect of which the lowest amount of rent is payable.
- (4) In a case where the duration of one relevant period (P1) differs from that of another (P2), to determine—
- 15 (a) whether a prohibited payment has been made by virtue of sub-paragraph (2), and
- (b) if so, the amount of the prohibited payment,
- the following steps are to be taken.

Step 1

20 For each of P1 and P2, the applicable daily rate of rent (the “ADR”) is to be calculated (and in the case of an amount that is not a whole number of pennies, then rounded up to the nearest penny) by dividing the total amount of rent for the period by the number of days in the period.

Step 2

If there is no difference between the ADR for each period, there is no prohibited payment.

25 Step 3

But if the ADR for P1 differs from that for P2, determine which of the rates is the lower (the “lower ADR”) and which is the higher (the “higher ADR”).

Step 4

30 For whichever period in respect of which the higher ADR is payable, calculate the amount of rent that would have been payable for it if rent had been payable in respect of that period at the lower ADR.

Step 5

35 Calculate the difference between the amount of rent calculated under Step 4, and the amount of rent actually payable in respect of the period in which the higher ADR is payable.

The resulting amount is a prohibited payment by virtue of sub-paragraph (2).

- (5) Where—
- (a) rent is payable monthly in respect of P1 and P2, or P1 and P2 are both periods calculated by reference to the same number of calendar months, and

(b) the amount of rent payable in respect of P1 and P2 is the same,
P1 and P2 are to be treated for the purposes of Step 2 in sub-paragraph (4) as having the same ADR.

5 (6) No account is to be taken of any difference between the rent payable in respect of P1 and another relevant period to the extent that it results from a permitted variation of the rent.

(7) In sub-paragraph (6), “permitted variation”, in relation to rent payable under a standard occupation contract, means a variation made –

(a) by agreement between the landlord and the contract-holder;

10 (b) pursuant to a term in the contract which provides for variation of the rent under the contract;

(c) by or as a result of an enactment.

(8) In this paragraph –

(a) “enactment” means an enactment (whenever enacted or made) comprised in, or in an instrument made under –

15 (i) an Act of Parliament,

(ii) a Measure or an Act of the National Assembly for Wales, and

(b) “relevant period”, in relation to a standard occupation contract, means any period in respect of which a payment of rent falls to be made.

Security deposit

20 2 (1) A payment of a security deposit is a permitted payment.

(2) In this Act, “security deposit” means money paid as security for –

(a) the performance of any obligations of a contract-holder, or

(b) the discharge of any liability, arising under or in connection with an occupation contract.

25 (3) But if the amount of the security deposit exceeds the prescribed limit, the amount of the excess is a prohibited payment.

(4) In sub-paragraph (3), the “prescribed limit” means a limit specified by, or determined in accordance with, regulations.

Holding deposit

30 3 A payment of a holding deposit is a permitted payment.

4 A holding deposit is an amount which –

(a) before the grant of a standard occupation contract, is paid to a landlord or a person acting on behalf of a landlord;

35 (b) is paid for the purpose of reserving a right of first refusal in relation to the granting of the contract, subject to suitability checks to be carried out as to the contract-holder and agreement between the parties to enter into the contract;

(c) does not exceed an amount equivalent to one week’s rent under the contract.

Payment in the event of default

5 (1) A payment that is required, under a standard occupation contract, to be made in the event of a default by the contract-holder is a permitted payment.

(2) In sub-paragraph (1), “default” means –

5 (a) a failure by the contract-holder to make a payment by the due date to the landlord, or

(b) a breach by the contract-holder of a term of the contract.

Payment in respect of council tax

6 (1) A payment that a contract-holder is required to make to a billing authority in respect of
